Story 003

Here are some things which people actually said in court.

Q: What was the first thing your husband said to you when he woke that morning?

A: He said, "Where am I, Cathy?"

Q: And why did that upset you?

A: My name is Susan.

Q: Were you present when your picture was taken?

Q: When is your birthday?

A: December 30th.

Q: What year?

A: Every year.

Q: Now doctor, isn't it true that when a person dies in his sleep, he doesn't know about it until the next morning?

Q: So you gave birth to the baby on August 8th?

A: Yes.

Q: And what were you doing at that time?

Story 004

One day in class, the teacher called one of her students over to her desk after a test and said, "I have a feeling you have been cheating on your tests."

The student was astounded and asked the teacher to prove it. "Well, the question was, 'Who was the first American president?' Mary wrote 'George Washington' and so did you," explained the teacher.

"So? I studied last night and remembered that," the student said.

"Well," continued the teacher, "the next question was, 'Who was the American president during the Louisiana Purchase?'"

Mary wrote 'I don't know,' and you wrote 'Me neither.'"
